Just a few guidelines to make things run smoothly ☺ Please initial understanding.

- 1) I understand that I am not to lift more weight than I am able to safely lift, and that I am ultimately to perform any exercises only to the point that I can do so safely, and that all students are to work out at their own safe level. _____
- 2) Our aerobics program does not require a contract, but AlamoShape ShapeTraining programs are 4-week commitments. While students may pay for the program with weekly checks there are no "trial sessions" and attendance at one session assumes commitment to the entire month. I understand that full payment is expected even if I do not continue the entire program. _____
